“ Al was a the epitome of a what a man should be like. He loved God, his neighbor as himself, was Very Wise and content with what he had. Here's a man that could have driven any car he wanted but the Dodge Omni was his dream car. Thank you Al for being such an inspiration and living your life to it's fullest. I learned a lot from just watching you live your life.

Respectfully,
Curtis Carpenter

“ Diane, Cindy, and Chris -
I always appreciated Alan's sense of humor, his dry wit interspersed with words of wisdom, and his quiet, yet ever strong, presence. I know he was a special support to Beverly, and particularly so as their parents grew weaker and weaker. It is, I suppose, an odd coincidence that Alan died on Beverly's birthday. I feel blessed to have had the opportunity to know Alan, and, while the loss of a loved one may seem overwhelming, I have come to a realization that those whom we have loved and who continue to love us are never truly that far away. My prayer for you is that you all will also deeply and authentically experience this invisible yet palpable support in the time ahead. And it is always there.
Love, Brian Taylor

“ I offer my deepest condolences for your loss. Nothing can fully prepare us for the loss of someone we love. However, God promises us that there will come a victory over death. The Bible repeatedly speaks about the elimination of death (Isaiah 26:19, John 5:28-29, Acts 24:15) and God's promise of everlasting life (John 17:3). So the battle against death is not a hopeless one. When that day arrives, death will truly be brought to nothing. Never again will anyone wonder, 'Does death end it all?'

“ Al was one of my best friends and I will miss him so much. Some days I would go to the gym because I knew he would be there. Talking to him, or listening to him talk to people would make a hard day better. If I missed going to the gym, he would give me a hard time when I came back. He was a riot, full of wisdom and jokes. "I have one for you.", he would say when he wanted to share a knew joke. How did he remember all those jokes? I am so grateful to have had him in my life.
Rest in peace, my friend.

“ All of us "gym rats" are gonna miss Al.

I always liked Al's insights. He was a great conversationalist and really good about putting people at ease.
