Phyllis and Family,
Please except my sincerest condolences for your dear mother's passing. Though many years have passed, my fond memories remain of your family visits to our house. Our dads were best buddies hanging out at dad's garage and as our mothers conversed, you and I shared fun and laughter during those summer days. Your mother will always a beautiful and sweet lady. May your precious memories along with love of family and friends provide comforting strength during your time of great sorrow and beyond. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. May GOD bless you today, tomorrow and always.
