“ Dear Family of Ann Jordan
My love and prayers go out to each of you as Ann has graduated to her Eternal Home. I pray God will surround you with His love and comfort you. I remember her beautiful voice as she sang at funerals for my family. Now she is singing with the Heavenly Choir! We can celebrate Ann's life and rejoice, no more suffering and pain! God is so good.

“ We love Aunt Ann dearly and will miss her equally. Her and Wayne's impact on our young marriage was priceless. Although I loved our time together in my youth however, my favorite conversations were while she was at the mission in Crestview. She had a deep passion to mentor the young women that were struggling with addiction. She gave them hope and was that mama they likely never had. I visited the mission a couple times and she would proudly introduce us to her "girls". The way they would look at her with love testified to the impact Ann was having on their lives. That's my very proudest moment of my Aunt Ann. Love you sweet lady...give my daddy a kiss for me ...until we meet again. Angie

“ Ann graduated with me at Dacula High School Class of 1969. I will always remember her as one of the sweetest and sincere ladies I have known. Her smile was radiant. Heaven surely received a new Angel.

“ There is not enough words to express how I feel about Ann. We bonded the first time we met. Even apart, I always knew she was there. Her live for me was so real and precious to me. My heart is so sad because part of it is missing now. I know Heaven is a little brighter and even more fun since Ann entered I'll miss her so much but so glad she's out of all the pain and suffering she went through. My heart and prayers go out to each of you. You've always been special to me and always will. Love you forever.
