“ Do, I don't have words to express my deepest sympathy with the loss of your son. Please know I am here if you need anything any time.
All of you are in my prayers and may God help you through this.
We love you
Gene

“ I'll lend you for a little while, a child of mine God said-
For you to love the while he lives and mourn for when he's dead.
It may be six or seven years or forty two or three,
But will you, till I call him home take care of him for me ?

He'll bring his charms to gladden you and should his stay be brief,
You'll have his nicest memories as solace for your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay since all from earth return, but there are lessons taught below, I want this child to learn.
I've looked the whole world over in my search for teachers true,
and from the things that crowd life's lane I have chosen you.
Now will you give him all your love, nor think the labor vain,
Nor hate me when I come back to take this lent child home again.
I fancied that I heard them say, " Dear Lord thy will be done, for all the joys the child will bring, the risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may,
And for all the happiness we've known forever grateful stay.
But should the angels call for him much sooner than we planned, we'll brave the grief that comes and try to understand.

May God give you peace and hope. We hold you and your family in our prayers

“ Do and family. I am so very sorry for the death of your son. The pain I know is overwhelming. I know you through my brother, Gene Dawkins. You guys worked together and have visited up here. Please let us know if there is anything you need or we can help.

Susan Dawkins Patton - February 20, 2019 at 12:00 AM

“ Our deepest sympathies are with you all. Words, alone, offer very little comfort, we know. But do know that you all are loved and cared for, and we will never stop praying for your family and for Benjamin
