A Mother's Love

In honor of a special Mother, (Carolyn Wilson) Mother of 11 children, I'm whom's writing this letter am the youngest child of the 11, Our father passed away in 1973, I was only 8 the oldest child was 21 yrs. old. The 2 oldest children were married, our mom had to raise the other 9 by herself, my oldest brother was like a father to us, he helped my mom in every way to take care of us. Our mom devoted her time and life in making sure we were taking care of, even to the point in working 3 jobs at a time, she never remarried, she provided everything we needed for school, food on our table, clothes on our back and most of all her Love.

"Mothers show their love in countless ways! The bandaged knees, packaged lunches, the tucked in blankets. All those tender acts make us feeling cherished - a feeling that, w as we grow up, gives us the strength to face life's challenges." But there were some hurts Mom couldn't heal. In 1997 our oldest sister passed away at the age of 42, In the midst of her own grief, she was there to console each and every one of us. She's like a Rose, God created the rose for Women, It represents beauty Its petals represents soft skin, Its leaves represents outstretched arms, always loving and giving; Its stem represents strength the kind that she always seemed to have.

Our Mom who is disabled now, due to health conditioned after working so hard to take care of 11 children, Its our turn to take care of her, She deserves it, I don't know if I could have taking care of all those children.

Many times, its not until we're mothers ourselves that we relize how deeply our parents loved us.

"A MOTHERS LOVE BLOOMS FOREVER.....GIVING US THE CONFIDENCE TO LOVE OTHERS AS WE HAVE BEEN LOVED."

Comments

“ I am so very sorry for your loss! Please find comfort from a scripture I'm sure you have read several times before but is personal to you now.
"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."
