“ I am very sorry for your loss. I would like to share a scripture that I hope brings you comfort during this difficult time. "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." -John 5:28. This scripture shows that God has promised to restore the dead to life by the means of the resurrection. You have the hope of being reunited with loved ones right here on earth but under very different conditions!

“ So sorry to here about you and the families loss.Here's some comfort.

Who Will Be Resurrected? Where Will They Live?

God loves young people. But he will resurrect many others too. Will God resurrect only those who did what is good?- We might think so. Yet, many people never learned the truth about Jehovah God and his Son. So they did what was bad because they were taught wrong things. Do you think that Jehovah will resurrect people like that?-

The Bible says: "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) Why will those who were not righteous, or who did not do what was right, be resurrected?- It is because they never had a chance to learn about Jehovah and what he wants people to do.

Why will God resurrect some who did not do what was right?

When do you think people will be resurrected?- Think back to when Lazarus died and Jesus promised his sister Martha: "Your brother will rise." Martha replied: "I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day." (John 11:23, 24) What did Martha mean when she said that Lazarus would rise on "the last day"?-

Martha had heard about Jesus' promise: 'All those in the memorial tombs will come out.' (John 5:28, 29) So "the last day" is when all those in God's memory will be brought back to life. This last day is not a 24-hour day. It will be a thousand years long. On this day, the Bible says, 'God will judge the people of the earth.' The ones he judges will include those who have been resurrected.-Acts 17:31; 2 Peter 3:8.

Think about what a wonderful day this will be! Many millions of people who have died will be brought back to life here on earth to live forever. (Acts 24:15; Ps 37:11,29)

Jesus calls the place where they are brought back to live Paradise. Would you and the family like to get more comfort? If so here's my email wanttohelponesthataresad@gmail.com and my text 919-561-8472.
