“ " My dear sweet friend I have no words except I will see you again in heaven with our Lord Jesus." We shared so much of our young single mother life. We laughed together, cried together, and prayed together. My life was better because you were in it. My life was sweeter because you were my friend. My life was fuller because I got to share in yours, our kids, our families, are hopes and dreams. This life is a vapor my friend, I will see you soon.

“ I remember Debra being funny, loving, caring and she knew me all my life. I remember her calling pawpaw Patton ET and they both always had a smile on their faces when she called him that. She always put others before herself. I will miss you Debra you will always be family and I'll be praying and thinking of your son's Chris and Thomas and your precious grandchildren. I know you will be watching over them. I love you Debra you are missed by so many.

“ So many memories of you, special lady. You were a strong woman, and an overcomer. You loved with a depth that was admirable and worth imitating. You enjoined friendship with the deepest of emotions, and often lifted my spirit with the greatest humor and kindness of and love. If i asked your opinion you gave it, and showed loved to your family and mine like no other. Thank you for loving my Grand, Nick, as if he was your own. I truly admired you, prayed for you, and am so grateful I will see you in Heaven soon. What a day that will be You are loved and greatly missed.

“ To Debra and the family . Debra , I've known you since high school. You were always smiling and happy and always a great friend to me. You' were always there for me when I needed you. You helped support me through some very tough times in my life. I remember going to church with you and your family and I taught Christopher in kindergarten, you loved your boys and you loved your whole family. I am really going to miss you but I am glad that you are not suffering anymore. You will always have a special place in my heart Debra. I love you my friend. Love, Sherry Brand
