“ I love yu Eli. You were one of a kind. Misunderstood by alot of people, but you never let tht stop you. You showed everyone the same love & respect, regardless to who or how they were. I always listened when you would give advice. You may not have known, but the conversations we had were always comforting to me. We had a few conflicts in our friendship, but I never judged you or held any grudge. In a way I felt something wasn't right in your mind. I wish I could've somehow known how to save you. But instead you get to save many. You will always be in my heart. ?

“ Eli I will always love you and miss you and never forget you. We've known each other for a couple years now and we have spent so much time together. Thank you for always giving to me even when u had hardly anything to give. I will always remember how you made me and Pig laugh so hard I peed my pants on more than one occasion. I hate it that your gone. Wish you could have met baby Esther I know you would live her. But you were kind to her when she was in my belly. I'll be missing you. Alot of people will be missing you. So many people have asked me about you. You touched people's hearts and we will never forget you. I have been crying all weekend about this and I don't know when I'm gonna stop. Your a beautiful lady and you always stuck up for me when people and guys were mean to me you had my back and I had yours and I'm sorry I was not around the last 3 months of your life. I really don't know what to say except I wish I could bring you back because the world needs more people like you .. but as they say only the good die young and that is the truth. I'm so sorry for your loss family of Eli. Your sister/daughter was my friend and she means so much to me I can only imagine the pain you feel....fly with Angels Eli I love you
