“ Hello! My name is Mr. Gerald D Traeye, Sr. I am a minister in the area and would like to offer my condolences to the family of Mr. Ezra B. Maddox. I have lost relatives in death also. One scripture that helps me cope with my loss is at John 5:28, 29. It helps me appreciate that I have the prospect of seeing my loved one again. It provides me with much comfort and I hope it provides you with the same comfort.

Again, please accept my condolences!

“ My condolences to the Maddox family. I grew up having the Maddox family as neighbors, they were always there to help when needed. They were good to my family and I'm grateful for knowing Ezra and the entire family. He will be missed.

“ My condolence to you, for you loss. my heart goes out to you. I'm praying for strength beyond normal, to comfort you and your family. God does Not cause death right now. "Time and unforeseen occurrences befall all." Ecclesiastes 9:11. The Devil does. Hebrews 2:14. Remember: "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on Earth, as it is in Heaven." Matthew 6:10; Daniel 2:44. You see it is a government that Jesus soon will rule as King. It will bring no more pain, no more sorrow, no more tears, no more death. Revelation 21:3-5. The dead will live again, here on Earth. Acts 24:15; Psalms 37:11, 29; Isaiah 26:19. Make sure you look up all the scripture to see this is all true. There is more. “ Pam
I am so sorry to hear of your Dad's passing, I know he had been in declining health recently. You will get through this but you will never get over the loss. From your posts about him it looks like he accomplished many things. Cherish all of the memories you have as they will be a comfort in the months and years ahead. Take care of yourself, you have been through so much in the past few weeks. I will be thinking of you and your family and keep you in my prayers.
