

George Vincent Frank

August 27, 2018

George V. Frank, age 90, of Hoschton, GA passed away peacefully at home Monday, August 27, 2018, surrounded by beloved family. He is preceded in death by his wife of sixty-six years, Rita Dalton Frank. Mr. Frank is survived by his children, Mary-Ann Reeter, Ithaca, NY, Jim (Sharon) Frank, Flowery Branch, GA, David Frank, Sanibel, FL, and Karenn Reeter, Hoschton, GA; five grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and brother, Richard Gerard Frank, Largo, FL. Mr. Frank was born on April 24, 1928 in Cambridge, MA. Before moving to Georgia, he was a resident of Auburn, NY from 1938 to 1979. By trade he was a building contractor. He also spent years as a line foreman at General Electric in Auburn, and later as the superintendent for building and grounds at Auburn Steel Co. Upon moving to Georgia he was a partner in the JG Carwash in Gainesville. Mr. Frank had a lifelong passion for horses and enjoyed riding and training into his late 70's. Post-retirement he developed an avid interest in woodcarving, painting and teaching others. Several of his carvings won awards. His greatest source of pride was his children and their families. He loved life. He lived it to his fullest capacity and was an inspiration in countless ways. A gifted storyteller, he captured our imaginations. He entertained and informed us with vivid stories based on personal experience. An informal Celebration of Life will take place at his home, 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. at 6506 Autumn Crest Lane, Hoschton, GA, on Saturday, September 8th. Friends are invited to drop by to share food, hugs and stories. Much of Mr. Frank's artwork will be on display. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to: Homestead Hospice HOPE Foundation, 10888 Crabapple Road, Roswell, GA 30075 in memory of George V. Frank.

“ There was no finer friend than George Frank. He was an artist, wood carver extraordinaire, carpenter and story teller. He loved to walk and did so even when his breathing was difficult. He made friends no matter where he went or what he did. He was loved and will be remembered as a wonderful, wonderful man to us, his family and friends.

“ My wife Helen and I have thought the world of George. He was such a kind and gentle human being. We will miss seeing him on his walks through Deaton Creek. May God rest his soul. We miss you, George.
