“ My sincerest condolences to your family. Losing a loved one is extremely difficult. We long for the time when we no longer have to experience the pain of loss. (Revelation 21:3,4) Until then, May the "God of all comfort" be with you during this difficult time and May you find peace in His promises and in your loving memories. (1 Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ I meet Gil when Donna was still alive. Donna impressed me, she was always so nice to me. I was not in the social network for 2 years. I ran into Gil, we were talking I asked about Donna. He told me she passed away. We kept running into each a friendship began to grow. We slowly grew closer. I had a heart attack, May 1, 2018. He was there almost everyday I was in the hospital. My hospital stay was 37 days. When I came home, we spent time with each/ We both had health problems. Scott was always a great help. Gil, cared for Scott a lot. From that moment on our friendship was growing stronger. We shared our lives we had lead. The life we leading in the present. Gil,shall always have a place in my heart. I grew to Love Gil, because he was a fine man.
He was a Gentleman. Gil was precious, I Thank God, he put a man in my life like Gil.
