“ I’m so very sorry for your loss. I went to North Georgia with Janet and Gary and later taught 1st grade with Janet at Buford Elementary. I’ve never known a more genuine, honest and sincere person than Janet. I was devastated when I heard of her passing. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. The world has lost a truly fine woman.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I first met Janet when I taught at Ft. Daniel and she took me under her wing and I learned so much from her. I was only at Ft. Daniel for a little over a year, but she made a big impact on me. She was kind, smart, and strong. I am so sorry she suffered so much, especially these last few years. She was proud of her family and I enjoyed catching up on how Joshua and Megan were doing. May she Rest In Peace.

“ Janet was one of the first teachers I met at Fort Daniel. With her warm smile and dancing eyes, she welcomed the newbie. Her professionalism and commitment to her students challenged me to excellence. Her presence and graciousness lightened the load of the day. She was simply a gift to know. May our Lord grant His uplifting peace to all those she has left behind. Dee Brandon
