“ I was so very heartbroken to hear about this-- I've known this man for 5 years and worked with him for about 3 of those years. He was one of my best friends, and all my thoughts and prayers are with every member of his family.

“ Our warmest and deepest sympathy for your loss. May God bless you and keep you safe during this painful time. We had the privilege of meeting Jason when he worked at store #944 with our daughter, Amy. He was an amazing person and our daughter thought very highly of him. All our prayers are with you!

“ I was just thinking about Jason a couple weeks ago, then I find out he had passed away. Jason was a sweet, dear man who was my manager at the Warner Robins Books-a-Million. He actually recruited me from Old Navy when I was working there one day. Because of him, I got my dream job at a bookstore.

He was kind and only had good things to say about everyone. I never heard an ill-willed word spoken from his mouth.

He was a manager but also a friend. I could talk to him open and honestly. That's hard to find sometimes.

I feel sad that we did not keep in contact after I moved. I now wish I had reached out sooner. Life is too short.

My deepest condolences to his family. ?? May they find peace and comfort despite this time of mourning.

Rest in Peace, Jason. I'll miss you.

“ I had the privilege of meeting Jason when he became the manager of the Gainesville Books-a-Million, working with my daughter Marissa. Whenever I would visit the store he always greeted me warmly with a beaming, welcoming smile. And when I would take my granddaughter to see her mother he would happily accept the hug she would run to give him when she saw him. He was a wonderful man who was liked and respected by so many. He will be deeply missed. All of his loved ones have my deepest condolences, and are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My deepest sympathies to you, Ashli, and to Jason's children and other family. God will provide strength and peace to you during this difficult time. Jason was a beautiful human being with a spirit that could light up a room. His "customer centric" approach to running his business was unparalleled. His contributions to my team were many and are not forgotten. I celebrate his life and mourn his passing with you.

Deepest sympathies,
Cindy
