“ I am so saddened to hear this news. Ken was so special to me. One of the most gentle souls I’ve ever known. My heart goes out to his family. I am so sad I didn’t get to say goodbye.

“ I'm thankful to have shared so many warm and silly memories with Ken. I will miss him deeply. He always had a smile and a big hug ready for me whenever we would see each other. I'll miss that most of all. Ken had a positive impact on my life and I'm grateful our paths crossed. If only for a few years. I'm so lucky to have known him. I'm sorry for your loss Loncar family.

“ Kenny and I helped open the restaurant Bare Bones Steakhouse starting in Sept. of 2015 and we became fast friends. Though he was 12 years my junior, we had a lot in common. We both grew up in Southern California and we both love Rock And Roll. We both love history and especially the history of music. He was well educated on a lot of subjects and was able to have a conversation about just about anything. I loved him and will miss him forever. Clay Bailey
