“ This woman was a treasure and everyone who knew her was aware of this fact. She could light up the room with that beautiful smile of hers. It started in the eyes and continued all the way to her toes. She loved people. She loved Loyell. She loved her family. She loved her church. She loved camping with her family and friends (which we did some in the 90's when we had our camper) But mostly she loved Jesus. The last time I saw her was at Bible school at West Buford two years ago. I had brought my grands to enjoy the time there and she latched onto me and let me take her by the arm to the fellowship hall and anywhere else we needed to go. I so enjoyed that year especially. Not long after that I heard she was failing in health. God bless her heart. She will be dearly missed by so many. But we will see you again one day by and by. Love you dear lady and you will never ever be forgotten. (Hearts and hugs).

“ Ways a dear friend, but more like a mother. We met at the grill, and my love of singing lead me to sing with you in the choir at Eedy Buford. I will miss you dearly, but you will always have a spot in my heart. Fly high with the Angels for I know your spot in heaven is reserved.

“ Always a friend but more like a mother. I met you at the grill long ago. My love for music lead me to West Buford to join you in the choir. I will miss you dearly, but I know your spot in heaven is reserved. Love always Trisha

“ Prayers and sympathy to the family. I work in the same office with Trish Hudlow who is most inspiring on a day to day basis. I'm sure these wonderful attributes were passed along from her mother, who is resting and rejoicing in heaven today. In my prayers, Elizabeth Beebe
