“ Louise Cook lit a candle in memory of Michelle Amy Greeson

“ Michelle was such a sweet and pretty young girl. I did not see Michelle much in her adult years and I regret that. I wish I had gotten to know her better and had some influence on her life. I remember her as such a sweet and polite niece when she was young and I would see her at family functions. She was always so nice to her uncle Steve and I have missed seeing her over the years. I remember her laughing and having such a good time at pool parties we had at my house. Those were great days for our family and I think all of us miss those days. We had a close family with plenty of kids running around.
I know Michelle was surrounded by love and I hope she left this world knowing that. She was far too young and she will be missed by many. I will look forward to seeing her at that big pool party in the sky and seeing that precious smile again.
Rest in peace, Michelle.

“ Michelle was my niece. She had such a sweet spirit. She was very special to me. Her mom and I were pregnant with our babies and due the same day. Michelle was born a day after mine. Debbie came and saw me in the hospital the day she went into labor. I always felt a connection with Michelle. She always had a smile when I saw her. She had a beautiful soul and will be so missed. Rest in peace sweet sweet Michelle until we see each other again.
