“ Family Bashizi has enjoyed many wonderful "family" times with the Magnesi's young and "wiser-ones" alike. I enjoyed my chats with Bob and appreciated his wealth of knowledge on every topic. Family gatherings will hold a space where Bob will be with us in spirit. I appreciated his ability to connect people together and to offer help or assistance whenever he could. The world may learn much from his kind and giving nature.
Hugs to you Judy and your whole family.
RIP Bob.

“ I was truly shocked when I heard that Bob had passed away. He was a good friend of my cousin, Ed Murtha when I was a teenager. My cousin lived with us and Bob would be at our house often. “ I never had a father-in-law, my own husband's father sadly passed before I met my husband. I have always told Bob and Judy that since they are my sister's in-laws, I like to think of them as mine as well. Bob was a genuinely kind man and his passing came as a painful shock to me. All my love to Judy and the rest of the Magnesi family.

“ Blessings to Judy and the family. a short poem for you,

I'm Free
by Shannon Lee Moseley

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've found now peace at the end of the day.

You are missed by many, my friend.

“ One has very few real friends in life, someone you can count on through thick and thin. Bob was that kind of friend to me. He served his country, and gave of himself to the church for the good of man kind, preparing food and being a Christian. I will greatly miss him. His family too will miss him. Carol an I both pray for strength, courage an understanding for them.
