“ My condolences to your family. No doubt this is a tough time for you and the need for comfort is critical. The best place to find this comfort is God's word, the Bible. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 it says, "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." This means that very soon God is going to put an end to death and we will no longer have to deal with the pain or loss anymore.

“ So thankful my daughter married a man whose mother and dad loved and served our Lord! Lynn Banks was a faithful and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, mother-in-law, teacher, friend and follower of our Lord! What a blessing to be the other grandmother to our grandchildren, Michael and Allie. I can only imagine the joy she is now experiencing in the presence of our Lord and her loved ones who have gone before her! I know she will continue to watch over us. Rest In Peace, Lynn!??????

“ "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." (1 Corinthians 15:26) I am so sorry for your loss. God promises that he will soon wipe away and reverse the effects of this enemy that causes so much pain. Your precious one will be brought back to you and you will never have to experience the pain of saying a goodbye ever again! (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:4,5) Jw.org

“ My condolences to your family. As a teacher myself it is safe to say she touched the lives of many. It really takes a special kind of person to teach for as long as she did. I encourage you to find comfort in the words at Revelation 21:4- " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."
