“ I feel so lucky to have had Tom as a brother-in-law. He always had a story, or tale to tell, he will be greatly missed.

“ Uncle Tom was a wonderful uncle. We visited his family every summer for years as children. He always made us feel welcome in his home. As teenagers we, along with Aaron were forced to go to a "teen dance" and he sat outside and made sure we didn't ditch! Then he felt bad and took us for ice cream. We will miss him dearly.

“ Tom will always have a special place in my heart. After dropping out of college I lived with him and Mary, for awhile. He made me feel like part of his family. He introduced me to the best pizza I ever had, little Caesars. At that time it actually was good. To me, he was one of the good guys. I'm going miss him.

“ We were so lucky to have Tom as a brother-in-law for 50 plus years. He was a wonderful husband and father. He was a great example of hard work and commitment to his family. He will be missed.
