“ Aaron was my first love. He made me laugh. He broke my heart at just 15. I am so sorry I couldn't get to see if you be last time. No one really knew what you meant to me or what we shared. I loved to watch you play the piano and sing. I am glad that we got back in touch with one another. You will be missed more than anything. Love you always. I will see you again some day. Love, Angel

“ Aaron you came into my life at a time when I needed friends the most and I always knew if I need someone you would always be there and you were. Thank you for being my friend and loving me warts and all. I am going to miss you so very much. Rest easy my friend, until we meet again.

“ Aaron, we only worked together for a short time at GPC, but it was a pleasure getting to know you. You were certainly a man of great customer service, caring for those you spoke with on the phone. And you were always like a best friend with your co-workers. I am saddened by your passing. May God's love and peace be with your family and loved ones in this time. Rest in peace, my brother.

“ I did not know Aaron, but I love Aaron because of his love for Jack. Jack, they say this too shall pass, they say grief eventually fades, but those sayings are of little comfort when you're living through such sad days. They say that time heals all, and this much I know is true. So hang in there my dearest friend and all together we shall see this through. Hoping that time eases the pain, heals your heart and that in time, you will learn to embrace life again.
