“ Karen,

My parents, Horace and Mazie Kilgore, did not find out about the passing of your mother until the afternoon of the memorial service. First, we are so sorry for the loss of your mother. My parents have such sweet memories of their friendship with she and your father. Secondly, we are so sorry we were not aware of her passing in time to attend the visitation or the memorial service to extend our condolences and prayers for you in person. Pray for God to comfort you in this time of grief.
