“ I've know Adam since 1987 through church camp as kids and keeping up with him throughout the years. I adored Adam and his devotion to his wife and daughter it was so heart-warming and his creative side was so bright and interesting. I bought two pieces of artwork from him which I'll treasure. My heart goes out to his family.

“ I watched dear Adam grow from a humorous, creative, caring student into a humorous, creative, caring artist, father, and husband. He was a man of true character and will be greatly missed in our lives. He will live on in our memories.

“ I only met Adam once at a local art show but his humor and wit came through in person as much as in his amazing art. I am so lucky to have two of his pieces. They make me smile every day. Rest in peace Adam.
