

Adam Scott Law

November 26, 2013

Adam Scott Law, 23, formally of Lawrenceville, GA, passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, November 26, 2013. Born May 5, 1990 in Fayetteville, AK, Adam spent his childhood in Lexington, KY, moving to Georgia at age 12. Adam was a 2008 graduate of Collins Hill High School in Lawrenceville and attended Kennesaw State University. He was a sports enthusiast with a special love and talent for baseball. Adam's passion in life was weight training and fitness and he was a certified personal trainer. The first thing anyone noticed when meeting Adam, was his infectious personality. He was warm, outgoing, and humorous.

Adam was predeceased by his parents, Scott William Law (May 28, 2012) and Elizabeth Schroeder Law (January 7, 2013). He is survived by his sister Morgan and niece Spencer Law of Flowery Branch, brother Jonah Law of Buffalo, NY, grandparents Rev. Don and Nancy Schroeder and Pat Law, many aunts, uncles, cousins, as well as family and friends. Visitation will be Friday, November 29 from 6:00-8:00 with services at 3:00 PM on Saturday, November 30, 2013 at the Chapel of Flanigan Funeral Home.

“ Adam was a kind hearted young man when we met him in high school and was a great baseball player with a lot of talent. He always made the younger players feel welcome and always had a generous spirit and hard work ethic. He made a daily difference in those practices and games and we will always remember his kindnesses. May God bless his soul and these memories stay in your heart.
