“ Rob,

I met "AJ" in person one time visiting you at home. Se was a lovely young woman. Getting asked what will be I answered "She will follow you where ever you wants her to go. You and your wife will have a great future". Her death was a shock to me. We keep her in our hearts forever. She will take care of you from heaven.

“ Remembering Ajung, AJ as we called her. Beloved wife of my son Robert and my dear daughter-in-law. She has departed from us now, but I feel certain that all who knew her will never forget her smiling face and the sound of her laughter. God bless you AJ. With love from Dad.

“ Rob,
You have been my best friend for almost 20 years and hearing about the loss of AJ breaks my heart as I know how much she meant to you. I remember visiting you at Ft. Bragg in 2004 and every night you dutifully snuck out to chat with AJ on the phone while she was still in Korea. I thought you were kinda crazy, but the way you spoke about her made me a bit jealous of what you had with her. When I finally got to meet her years later, it all clicked. She was a great gal and wonderful companion for you. I remember a summer evening at the house on Sunflower drinking beer and cracking jokes with AJ. You just laughed cause she gave the jokes as well as she took them. Without even trying she also became a dear friend of mine, that's how wonderful and magnetic she was. I know this is a terrible tragedy but you have the love, support, and prayers of everyone you and AJ have met to help you through this.

Godspeed AJ!

“ *I only had the chance to met AJ twice and that really was very impressive to me.
She immediatly gave me the opportunity to communicate very open and easy to each other. I hope she will find her way to the light wherever and whatever it might be.*

“ Dear Robert,

I've heard from your Dad about the loss of your beautiful young wife Ajung. It has left me speechless and very sad. Even though I did not know Ajung personally, I know from stories your Dad has told me and pictures he has shown me what a lovable and beautiful person she was. Dear ones we love never die; they live on in our hearts. I hope you will find some comfort in that. My thoughts are with you and your family.

“ We haven't been in contact with you and Robert for a while but that doesn't mean we haven't stopped thinking about you both. We often think about the time Robert bought you to England to meet us. You were so happy and you came into our home and made yourself at home like we had known each other for years and how geraldine tried to teach you the in's and outs of cooking an English roast dinner. You will be sadly missed by people all over the world, God bless you. We will keep you in our hearts forever.
