“ I met Alex over the summer of 2015 at the Swamp Camp, though I had seen him there previous years, it was that time that I really got to know him. Before long, I was following him everywhere. He was three years older than me, so it meant a lot that he was welcoming and friendly. I remember on the last night of camp we sat and talked for a long time-about life. There is no easy way to explain but it was one of those talks you tend to remember because you learn so much about a person, ultimately making you respect them more. Alex stuck around in my mind long after that camp was over because I was able to know his challenges in life, and his set decision that not a single one would overcome him. I never saw Alex again in person, though I talked to him once or twice over social media. Me and another close friend were planning to meet him this summer, but life...

Rest In Power Alex, and God bless your soul

“ Alex was great friend to me, we was teammates too, when I first met Alex in highschool my junior year every since then we became cool, we played jv football together, and he was good teammate on and off the field, he taught me a lot things and how to better myself and become someone stronger. I would never thought this could happen to someone so honorable and intelligent. I'll never forget you fam. You'll forever be my bro Rest easy bro. I'll see you soon.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Alex's passing. I was his 5th grade teacher. I remember Alex as a sweet, quiet boy. I remember one time that he and another boy moved their desks while I was out of the room. When I came back in, they were trying to look all innocent. When I figured it out, I told them that if they thought they could sit together and behave, then I would let them keep their desks together. And they did! My heart goes out to the family. I also lost my son in 2016. If there is anything I can do, or if the family needs support, please contact me. You are not alone. Alex will be missed.

“ There are no words to express how sorry we are to hear about your family's great loss. I will remember the conversations Alex and I recently had at church. He was always so quiet but so kind and respectful. Jason always enjoyed having Alex in his cabin while he was a counselor at The Swamp. Your family has been there for us and helped us care for Cameron before and after school...please know we are here for you too in whatever capacity is needed...all our love and prayers, Paulette & Tim

“ All I can think about is how sad it is that Alex is gone so soon. Remember when we were going to trade Cows and Chickens for our kids to get married one day? We loved your boy for so many years, and we will always remember our families spending time together at church, the beach, kindergarten and more. We always felt he was a wonderful boy and a beautiful reflection of the love of wonderful family. God Bless you all. Much love and sincerest sympathies from Myself, Michael, Alicia, Maya, and Parker.

“ A great young man taken far too early. These words are simply words though and no amount of words can ever truly describe how special Alex was. He had a profound effect on everyone he knew and anyone who was lucky enough to know him was touched by his smile, by His laugh, by His ethic. I will miss Alex every day but I will keep him close to me always. His memory will live on in my heart forever. I love you bud. Go get em dude. This world wasn't worthy of having you man; but I'm so glad you were my cousin. We should've been brothers though and I wish we would have been. Imagine the trouble we would've caused. I really miss you man. I'm trying to find the words to express it, but there really truly are none. Fly high Alex. I'll see you on the other side.
