“ Faye, Bill and I are reminiscing about our years as friends and next door neighbors. Twenty years is plenty of time to observe a person's life and know who they truly are, and Big Al was a keeper! Kind, giving, wonderful husband, father, grandfather, friend and neighbor. He was also quite the character. We'll never forget when, during an ice/snow event, we looked out the front window only to see Big Al sliding down the street in front of our house sitting on a chair attached to ski's, and he was no spring chicken at the time. We'll miss you, but we know that you are enjoying that new body and having fun hanging out with Jesus. Until we meet again.....

“ The BEST neighbors anybody could have! Al and Faye were the first residents in our subdivision and we were the second ones. For almost 25 years, we witnessed how Al loved his wife, children, grandchildren and neighbors. He was a faithful and loyal man who we were blessed to see almost every day. We can still see Al riding his lawnmower and taking meticulous care of his yard. He was so loving and caring to us, that we'd come home from a long trip, and our lawn was mowed. He took it upon himself to help out his neighbor. That was Al. How we miss him! How we loved him! How blessed we were to have known him! Dear family of Al, our heartfelt prayers are offered in your behalf to our merciful, loving Father!

“ To Faye, Michele, Michael, Christie and all the family: you were his world and he yours. Nothing will ever replace him, his jokes, creative snow sleds, stories, and each of you have your own memories that will never fade. Personally, I remember Valentines in the red Mercedes that he borrowed from work that made it so special for each of us, and all the times he shared Faye and enjoyed our times at Helen or having margaritas!! Goodbye for now, Big Al❤️ Sincerely, Sista Nancy, Mrs. D Friend
