“ I was sad to hear the news that Alice had passed away. My husband and I were just talking about her last week and of all the fun times she and I had working together on the Florida project. Alice was a real spit fire, down to earth lady. I remember when she had her first grandchild and how proud she was, loved the pictures. She always managed to make YIN yoga look so easy, and I loved her stories about baking Christmas cookies with her girls of which I got a few plates full each year. I also loved to hear about family stories on the houseboat and Jimmy's escapades. But most of all I miss the fun we had drinking copious amounts of wine hanging out at the little RV. I will miss her dearly.
