

Allen Sloan

September 28, 1936 - October 27, 2022

Allen Sloan, 86, of Buford, GA, died at his home October 27, 2022 after an extended illness.

Born in Hortense, Georgia on September 28, 1936, Allen joined the Navy after a year of college and served 6 years in the submarine force. During his time in the Navy, he transitioned from diesel to nuclear submarines and spent much of his time in school. One of his most memorial events in the navy was in 1962, when he maintained the nuclear reactor aboard the USS Seadragon as it became the first submarine to rendezvous with another under the ice cap of the North Pole. After the Navy, Allen attended Georgia Tech University before spending the rest of his career, and retiring, as an Engineering Technician at Scientific Atlanta.

Allen was also very active and devoted to his church throughout his life. He served as a deacon in the Philadelphia Church of God for many years.

Allen is survived by his wife of 54 years, Sarah Sloan of Buford, GA, son David Sloan (Jody, deceased) of Marion, IA, daughter, Michelle Meisner (Troy) of Braselton, GA, two brothers, Hershel Sloan (Pat) and Robert Sloan (Iris), one sister, Zubie Wolverton and five grandchildren, Ryan Sloan, Stacey Sloan, Dawn Sloan, Zachary Sloan and Matthew Sloan.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Arthur and Mary Sloan, three sisters, Onie Flowers, Florence Blaylock and Ocie Flowers, and four brothers, Burt Sloan, Vet Sloan, Herman Sloan and Eugene Sloan.

A memorial service will be held on Sunday, November 6, 2022 at 1:00 p.m. in the Chapel of Flanigan Funeral Home with Wik Heerma officiating. The family will receive friends from 11:00 a.m. until time for the service at 1:00 p.m.
