“ Allen was a true light at Taylor Elementary, always smiling, always friendly, always ready to help. His thick southern drawl was like pancake syrup, smooth, sweet and and always left you feeling good! I look forward to seeing Allen when I go home. I know he'll be there smiling! Love and prayers to your family.

“ Mr. Allan was one of the kindest most down-to-earth people. I am a teacher and met him when he was a custodian at Taylor elementary.He always stopped by my room just to ask how I was doing most every afternoon.He always had a smile and an encouraging word. He will surely be missed by all. My condolences to the family.
