“ Allen lived at the Facility I worked for! He was an absolute joy to talk to, and always made my days better! ❤️ I remember when I first walked into his room and said "hey Mr. Allen" he said no, it's Allen. After that we became friends ❤️ I always made it a point to stop by his room and check in on him. He'd offer me a coke and a kitkat while we talked ❤️ Our very last conversation we had on the phone was he told me I'm proud of you for taking care of your daddy, he's in great hands. ❤️ I told him to get better soon because we have alot more to talk about. My heart is just broken over the passing of such a sweet soul 💔 Rest in Paradise, Allen ❤️ I know Heaven is absolutely gorgeous now! ❤️ I'll miss you forever, Allen! I'll save a kitkat and a coke for you my friend ❤️

“ Allen was a special person to us at Brookdale. We can always count on Allen to put a smile on our face. I was so shocked when I received the news of his passing but one thing I can say is that he will be in a better place. The bird sounds he would make and the jokes he cracked will surely be missed but God always knows best . To the family I pray that God will heal your broken hearts and bring a small on your face when you think about the good times. I pray for God to comfort you and lift you up during these hard time. Love you Allen Now you have your wings so go sing with the 🐦.

“ Condolences to the family of Alan. He was a friend of my mother's at Brookdale and she was always talking about him going through the dining hall doing bird whistles to cheer everyone up and get a smile from them...he made a a very positive impression on the ones whose life he touched there.

“ Our condolences to Ray, John and all Allen's family and friends. He was one of the "good- guys" from long ago in my life. As our lives dwindle down the sorrow of our deaths are born by our family and those who knew us. I feel this world is a less friendly with the passing of Allen. I am sure he is where he has wanted to be for some time and am Happy for him. But, selfishness for the world's loss dampens our happiness.
