“ So sorry the way I found out about Allyson's death. I have know Allyson'since she was a young mother at Meadow Baptist Church. She was so beautiful, and always friendly. This is a terrible shock. I have been praying for her husband, mom. dad and daughter. I thought she was going to win, but God had his reason to take her to Heaven out of her pain. She left a wonderful testimony for the Lord and all of us. Love

“ Donald and Margaret I am so sorry for your loss of your precious daughter, Allison. I wish I had words to say what is in my heart. Just know that my prayers are still with you and your family. I have so many precious memories of our years of friendship, dating back to the days when Allison was just a little girl and we attended the little country church , Norcross Baptist Tabernacle. Take comfort in knowing that you raised her to know the Lord and she is now with him forever, never to suffer again. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." Psalms 116:15. May God bless and comfort you and give you strength to face the days ahead. My love and prayers. Mary Lou Burney.

“ Nathan, so sorry to hear of your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that Jesus is holding Allison close to him now. Our body is just an earthly vessel (remember this). We will all meet again in Glory Land and dance on the streets of gold. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers during this time of mourning. Peace be with you all. “ We are sorry seems like such a little thing to say, but we have never been able to find anything else that can adequately convey feelings at this time. We know your loss is devastating and frustrating with comfort hard to find. In your loss try to realize that Allison is now away on life's greatest adventure. Today, she is enjoying a peace too great to be imagined as long as the soul and body are joined. She now has an understanding of life's greatest questions. For Allison, everything that depended upon faith is now a reality. Your sorrow is natural, but be happy for what she has.

“ We are saddened by the loss of your dear love one. The pain that death of a loved one brings can sometimes overwhelm us. Our loving God Jehovah knows how we feel and he provides comfort from his word the Bible. Psalm 34:18 says: Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit. Comfort also can be found in the words at Revelation 21:4; And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. May these scriptures bring comfort and calmness of heart to you at this time. Please accept our deepest sympathy.

“ *Place me as a seal upon your heart,
As a seal upon your arm,
For love is as strong as death is,
And exclusive devotion is as
Unyielding as the grave.
Its flames (love) are a blazing fire,
The Flame of Jah. (1 John 4:8)
Surging waters cannot extinguish love,
Nor can rivers wash it away.”
Song of Solomon 8:6,7*
