“ Amy and I worked together in Sugar hill for Allstate 30+ years ago and instantly became friends. I have never laughed so hard with another person and she always had the biggest smile. She and Nanny Faye helped with my girls and she was always the best travel partner. If we ever saw a ‘new’ or ‘odd’ fashion we would always look at each other, squish up our face and say, ‘that’s the way they wear ‘em these days!’ And burst into laughter. She was a friend that if you had not spoken to her in a while, you could talk to her and pick up like you had just spoken the day before. She always made me feel like I was a gift from God and loved so much. I admired how she loved her family and I couldn’t be happier knowing she’s with her mom and rejoicing with Jesus. I look forward to seeing her on the other side and laughing with my dear friend. Rest in eternal peace Amy! 💕💕💕💕
