“ Unos de tantos recuerdos cuando Ana María estaba pequeña que jugaba junto a mi hija ella le compartían sus juguetes a mi hija, otro es cuando se fue a vivir a Estados Unidos había empacado sus peluches favoritos de los cuales no regalo dos y que aún los conservamos por el viaje se sentía muy feliz y a la vez muy nerviosa tantos recuerdos que tengo de ella mi hermosa niña recuerdo el embarazo de tu mamá los antojos son tantos recuerdos que me duele mucho tu partida, vuela alto porque serás el más hermoso angel que tendrá el cielo.

“ Ana María was my childhood friend in Colombia, we have known each other since we were little and my greatest memories are when we played and danced the song "La Bomba" while laughing watching a video of a hippopotamus dancing the song. She was a very cute and funny girl and although we were no so close friends, but our anecdotes and jokes about it were still present. Ana you were an incredible person and I know that you always wanted to improve yourself and be a better person and it is to be admired, I hope you rest in peace sweetie ☐ 🌟

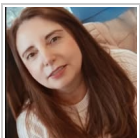

Ana María fue mi amiga de la infancia, nos conocemos desde pequeñas y mis mayores recuerdos son cuando jugábamos y bailábamos "La bomba" mientras nos reíamos de un vídeo de un hipopótamo bailando la canción. Ella era una niña muy linda y chistosa y aunque ya no éramos tan unidas, aún seguían presentes nuestras anécdotas y los chistes al respecto. Ana eras una increíble persona y se que siempre quisiste superarte y ser una mejor persona y es de admirar, espero descanses en Paz ☐

“ We, The Luque Jacobson family are sending our deepest condolences 🌸 🌹 and love to Ana Maria and familia. Ana Maria will always be remembered. She was a sweet soul and the most loving and generous friend. Please share these memories from our daughter Lorena:

One of my key memories in middle school is my friend Ana Maria. We met in middle school and lived in the same neighbourhood. I still remember our long hangouts where we would make silly videos, cook together, and rewatch the same Netflix movie over and over again.

The movie was called “to all the boys I loved before.” We could never find a movie that replaced it. But the thing I remember the most is her kindness. She was the kind of selfless friend that would love to see a smile on your face. I still remember the one night that it was 2 or 3 in the morning and I passively told her that I was hungry. She immediately goes and asks me what I want to order and that we could have it delivered to her house. I was shocked and replied “Really?”

Middle school was a difficult time but in a way she always made it better. With her kindness she always brought light to my day and her loyalty prevailed after she moved away. She would call and text me asking how I was doing and told me that the people over in Georgia are nice. I always hoped she would come back. She reminds me of the famous saying that goes “you will not remember what a person did but how they made you feel.” She made me feel welcome, like her home was my home. She made me feel appreciated. I still remember the moment she was driving away and we texted each other as she pulled out of my house saying “I’m leaving tomorrow” and we both shed a few tears. She was so honest, she always wore her heart on her sleeve. She was so so kind and I am so thankful that I got to know her heart. I know God knows how amazing she was and how pure her intentions were. RIP Ana Maria, an amazing, infinitely kind friend.

“ Querida Anamaria.....te conocimos, te tratamos y vimos en ti una gran dulzura. Nunca olvidaremos el día que recibiste a Heriberta la vaquita de tus 15 añitos.... Y este nombre se lo colocaste en honor a tu papá. Queremos que sepas que te seguimos queriendo y siempre estarás en nuestro corazón....aún no creemos que estás en otro plano..y no nos acostumbraremos a tu ausencia. ...Vuela alto...muy alto pequeña y esperanos en la eternidad!!!! Luchito y Lilis!!!!
