“ Knowing Andy for 50 years was a true blessing. He was kind, thoughtful, funny, caring, sensitive, intelligent and special in so many ways. He joined our dinner table & celebrations long before our families blended. My friend, my brother, I love you & I will miss you until we joyfully meet again.

“ A few kind thoughts about Andy. Andy and me met about 5 th grade and attended school together thru high school. We lived in Kenwood subdivision, Smyrna, Ga. A good friend, we shared many a good time together.

I remember working at the Sheraton Hotel in about 1974 and selling peanuts at Ga. Tech football games for Mr. Mobley. " Get your peanuts" we would yell. Andy always was a hard worker. But it wasn't all work. We had many a good time camping out in our forts, walking to the pool room in Oakdale and shooting pool, and even hichhiking to Cobb Center. We attended many a concert together as well. We had a lot of fun and good times! Andy was always kind and selfless. I last heard from Andy few months ago when I reached out to him after contracting Covid myself. How supportive he was! He was very concerned and we had a very nice conversation. I shall miss those conversatons and Andy, I will miss you. Rest in Peace brother.

To the Mitcham family and friends.

My most sincerest condolences on the loss of Andy. A husband, father, brother, uncle and friend, Andy was all of these. A crying shame he was taken so young. I will remember Andy always, as I am sure you will.

Most Sincerely,
Vernon Fisher

“ Britanny, I'm so sorry to hear about your dad, and for the loss you and your family are experiencing. I didn't know him personally, only the reflection of his personality that I get through knowing you. For certain I can say that Andy raised a kind, thoughtful and loving family.

What a tragedy that this pandemic has cut short 5M lives, and caused so much untold suffering. I especially hate to see it strike the people I care about.

Please don't hesitate to ask if you find yourself in need of help over the holiday.

*Kindest sympathies,
Max*
