“ Andy was like a 3rd Son to me and losing him was like one of my own. His smiling face, his quiet way and love for family and 2 children. I watched him grow from a small child to now, his beautiful soul and kind ways never changed. Watching you grow up with my own sons leave me with so many beautiful memories. And now I must let my Faith in Jesus Christ take over the pain of losing you Andy Poo. That was your nickname for my husband and me through the years though I don't think you liked it as well as a grown man as when you were but a young babe. Give your Mom a great big hug for me! We love you forever! Kathy, Mickey, Jimmy, Jamie and Steph
