RIP Miss Ann, along with JW, after 61 years of marriage. You were both very special and kind human beings. Many fond memories. Especially y'all letting my 3 yr old son (now 20) catch his first fish from your beautiful pond. We have wonderful videos of that day in history. You will be missed by many with there fond memories. Dean H. aka your attic rat.

To members of Aunt Ann's family, I do offer my sincere sympathy. She was my dad's half sister and she was always very kind to me. She called me several months ago and I did appreciate her friendship. I look at death as a graduation from this life to the next life and I know that Heavenly Father has a plan for each of us. She will always be in my memories.
