“ I was shocked to see the smiling face of Ann Marie (Vacendak) King, who I knew so well many years ago. She had a wonderful dress shop, Che Ann Marie, on Spruce St. in Scranton, PA. I work for an architectural firm, who in the early 1980's had offices above her clothing store. I spent nearly every lunch hour sitting on the couch in her store, talking and laughing and trying on the wonderful clothes she sold. She was always a great friend and so much fun. She was a wonderful cook and introduced me to tahini paste, which was such an exotic flavor at that time. To her brother, Mike, whom I know well, and his wife, Tana, and sons, and to her husband, Victor, please accept my deepest sympathy. Ann Marie was one of a kind and I will never forget her.

“ May Jehovah God comfort you during this time of loss. Though there may be little that can be said or done to ease your pain, may you find comfort in knowing that many care and sympathize with your sadness. Always know that Jehovah God is with you to strengthen and guide you. May your trust in his promise of a resurrection bring you peace. - Acts 24:15
