“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. I miss you so much, I miss your smile and the way you always made me laugh.

“ Ann-Marie, you were a big part of the Yargo Elementary famiy. I didn't know you too well, but we did talk occationally when you subbed. I knew right away who your children were and knew how much you loved and cared for your family. You made yourself lovingly available to your children and followed them through high school. And although you are not here, your children will always remember you and will carry on your spirit. Prayers for the family and, God Bless.

“ AnnMarie was like a second mother to me. Brittany and I are great friends and honestly, I believed that she had, by far, the most amazing mother anyone could ask for. Anytime Brittany or Nick needed her, she was right there. I've never seen AnnMarie without a smile on her face and having a good time. Not a moment passed when I visisted did she have me laughing or smiling about something. I know she has left with many impressions on people's hearts and we will always remember her. This truly was her temporary home and is now in such a better place than this world. We all love you, AnnMarie, and I know we'll see you again some day.
