Ann Glass Ragle-Haynes, age 67, of Lula, GA passed away, Friday, November 9, 2018. She was preceded in death by her father, John Richard Glass, Jr. and mother, Margaret Tarlton Glass. Mrs. Ragle-Haynes is survived by her husband of ten years, David Gordon Haynes, Lula, GA; son and daughter-in-law, Brian and Stephanie Ragle, Bogart, GA; stepdaughter, Sandra Haynes Poisson and husband Peter Poisson, Cumming, GA; stepmother, Silvia Glass; six grandchildren, Zachary Ragle, Landon Ragle, Addyson Ragle, David Haynes, Elizabeth Poisson and Catherine Poisson; uncle, Charles Tarlton and wife Harriett; and several cousins. Mrs. Ragle-Haynes was born on October 8, 1951 in Atlanta, GA. Mrs. Ragle-Haynes was of the Presbyterian faith. She was a 1969 graduate of Grady High School, Atlanta, GA, and loved the class reunions and being able to keep up with her school friends on Facebook. Ann also was a graduate of Gwinnett Technical College earning a degree in accounting. Ann began her work career at C&S National Bank as a Teller, then went work at Georgia Power following in the footsteps of her Grandfather and Father. She then became the Director of Client Services for Dr. Richard Kaine at Quality Management Resources for more than 12 years. When QMR relocated out of state she became a Realtor in the Buford area. In addition, Ann was a Dance Instructor and Choreographer for Emory University's Center for Life Long Learning for over 28 years where she taught ballroom, line, swing and dancing for brides and grooms. important of all. Ann had a deep love of her family. She was thrilled when the Grandchildren called her Memommy, a name which continues to this very day. She was a camper, kayaker, a lover of animals and all things outdoors, sharing each with her son and then her grandchildren. She also enjoyed her dancing as the leader of the Cotton Cloggers for more than 15 years. The Cotton Cloggers entered various clogging competitions and performed all over Georgia and the southeast at various venues including Stone Mountain Park. They also performed at the New Orleans World Fair in 1984. Ann was a Rotarian for the last 18 years which was very important to her because Ann always has had a heart for service to others. During those years she served Rotary at the Club and District levels. Most recently as District 6910 Public Image Director. “ To Brian and Dave,

Ann was one of the kindest people I have ever known. I knew Ann from high school at Grady, when she was a senior and I was a lowly freshman. We accompanied the senior play together that year, and had so much fun doing that. Ann was such a trooper! I was fortunate enough to talk with Ann one evening not too long ago, but little did I know just how sick she was. I was believing that she was recovering, and she probably believed that too. Ann was a strong person, never wanted anyone to feel bad for her. Her sense of humor kept us all going. I don't think she ever gave up. I know we will all miss her. Brian and Dave, know that you are in my prayers.

Love,
Anne

“ Meeting special people like Ann is a gift that comes with working with a wonderful service organization like Rotary. She was so dedicated to her craft and to giving. It seemed that she had so much more to give and wanted so much to do it. She most definitely did not go quietly into that dark night, but fought it all the way. Still, despite an early end to her life, she did more in the time allotted to her than many do in two lifetimes. It was good to know you!

“ Dear family,
Ann was a classmate, however, more importantly, a friend. As both, we shared classes, laughs and girl talk. In high school, talked a great deal of our classes, other friends, future plans and life in general
No matter how much time passed, we seemed to pick up our conversation where we left it the time before. We last spoke a few months ago and saw each other two years ago at a classmates' memorial service. At that service we endeavored to make sure to keep in touch more often and we did , but still not enough. Was thinking of her the other day and now know why--she was leaving us.
Ann, we will missed by her family ,friends and classmates.. To all, take comfort in the God Ann loved.
Be blessed,
Joy Eastling
