“ Anna was a very special person and a fine Christian lady. We enjoyed the Olympics and bowling with her. She was very competitive as an athlete!

Deepest sympathy to Houston and all the family in her passing. She was very much missed at the worship services when she became bedridden due to her illness.

“ It is sad to learn of Anna's passing, although, I didn't really know her, but I feel as if I did thru Robbie and Dave Landrum. I remember Robbie and Mrs. Landrum stopped to spend the night with my mother-in-law in Alabama when they were going to visit Anna. Robbie Lee was my sister-in-law.
