The loss of a loved one is always hard and especially when it happens at a holiday season. Pain and suffering is never we want to see a loved one go though but knowing that she is now free of pain and resting in the arms of our Lord and savior can help you though the days ahead. You were lucky to have had as much time with Anne as you did.

Prayers and thoughts are with you now.

“ Anne was an amazing person. I met her at the American Legion dancing. Anne loved to dance, especially line dancing. She taught me some line dances and we danced many Saturday night away. I know in recent years she has not danced much but would still come and sway to the music. Anne was extremely kind and always interested in her surroundings and friends. I am so sorry Van...you are in my thoughts and prayers.
