“ I have such warm memories of Mrs. Day from my childhood. She was always so kind and welcoming, making me feel right at home whenever I visited. I remember riding bikes with her son Nathan throughout our Punta Gorda,FL neighborhood & spending weekends at their house, which always felt full of joy and comfort. Mrs. Day had a gentle spirit and a way of making everyone feel cared for. She was truly an amazing woman, and I'll always be grateful for the kindness she showed me growing up.

“ Anne Day was such a resilient lady. She was a wonderful friend to me and Gloria. My children were blessed to have had her as an English teacher and I had the joy of working with her as teacher and as her administrator. I also had the joy of teaching her son, Nathan, who sang in Bel Canto Chorale and was a state champion in quartet. Most of all, I am so glad to know how she impacted students lives because of her walk with God. Thank you Nathan for caring for your mother.

“ I will always remember Ms. Day's humor and wit. She was smart, and I always felt like she talked to me like an adult - not a child or student. She didn't pander to you - because she knew you could rise to the task. She left an indelible mark on generations of Buford students, and I am grateful to have been one of them.

“ Ms. Day was my fabulous 10th Grade ELA teacher from '95-'96. Her spunky, sassy, witty and sarcastic attitude would always hit you with surprise while she always had a lovely smile on her face. You could tell her love to educate was just as passionate as her love to see her students succeed. Even though it's been well over two decades since I last got to see her, the fond memories I was so fortunate to have of her have made such a wonderful impact of the most cherished memories I've had of BHS. I pray God fills this new void her family members and close friends now have with his undying love, wonderful mercy and amazing grace. We love you, MS. Day!

“ Ms. Day was a light in the classroom. I graduated in 2010 from Buford High School and I remember her being at the graduation supporting all of the students. Everytime we would go over a book or lesson she would make comments that would make us laugh and make the lesson fun. She was one of the best English teachers in Buford High School.

“ I can write books, articles and stories because this beautiful, wonderful, funny person taught me. In fourth grade. In fifth grade. In sixth grade. In ninth grade. And in tenth grade.

“ I have been so fortunate to have had a special lifelong friend, Anne W. Day.
She had such a beautiful spirit, love of others, and a spunky personality.
My best friend and Tift Sister was the epitome of "A Polished Cornerstone."
I already miss her, and she will always be in my heart.

“ I graduated high school in 2011 & Ms Day had to be the most caring woman at Buford. By this time she was a substitute and if a teacher was absent EVERYONE hoped it was Ms. Day filling in. She was a bright light at Buford High School & she will be missed!
