“ It is Saturday evening and I just learned that Anne had passed away. I am so sorry for your family's loss. Many years ago, Anne was in my class at Murphy High School in Atlanta. At that time, we all knew her as Debbie Jones. She told me she was called Anne now but I still called her Debbie. I guess the last time I talked with her was on her birthday in 2013. She was a sweet person. May God be with you at this time of sorrow and loss.

“ I remember when we moved to Georgia in 1974. Vernon, Anne and their whole family made our family feel welcome. They showed us how to get around and I loved going to church and I was so happy to join the youth at SRBC so I could go on visitations with them. Remember the Varsity? Some of my happiest memories from that time include your family. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Much love and hugs to all.

“ Mr. Wilson: Although we didn't know your sweet wife, we have heard of her love for our Lord. It was a privilege for my husband, Lynwood and me, along with a group of friends to sing Christmas carols a few days ago at your home for you, your wife and daughter. It was also our privilege to offer prayers on her behalf and for you and your family. We trust that God is sustaining you with peace and comfort as you go through this very trying loss, knowing she is now with Him and rejoicing.
