“ I sincerely wish I had said something when this page existed a couple years ago, but I did not know of it until now. I hope everyone will forgive me for that. Tony, you were the man. You were my best friend, the brother I wish I had when I was both at my best and worst. I remember the times we rode in your mom's Buick up to the mall and when we took my old Mustang when I could drive. Looking back on it all after what would've been your 28th birthday, those are memories I sincerely wish I could've shown in your life what they meant to me but unfortunately I did not know how to or didn't think to at the time. I hope you are resting easy in God's embrace and someday I hope to see you again and maybe we'll going walking to Zaxby's like we used to in God's kingdom. I love and sorely miss you man.

“ I only met Anthony in the spring when he took my Golf class at GGC, but it was an experience that I will always cherish. He pushed my teaching knowledge beyond the normal boundaries and taught me how to be creative in ways to teach him golf. He brought the best out in all of us at GGC. He was an amazing individual and I will never forget him and, of course, Flex!

“ We first met Tony when my daughter and son joined the children's chorus at SHUMC. That was over 16 years ago. He was so supportive and such a leader to the younger kids. My daughter was really scared to sing in front of a crowd, and he just put his arm around her and kept telling her that everything was going to be okay and giving her such encouragement. That was Tony. He was always lifting others up and never had anything but a kind word for everyone.

Even when I could see that he was dealing with things in his life, he always had a kind word and smile. His faith in God and love for others always shone through in every interaction I had with him. I aspire to be more like him.

We are mourning for you, Cathy, Leo and Andy. And we are mourning our loss as well, because he made our world a brighter place filling it with His light.

We know that Tony has gone home and is in the Lord's arms. He has called home this beautiful angel. We will see your beautiful smile again one day.

“ Tony was one of my more challenging and memorable patients over the years. He made such an impact on my life and career. I remember him digging his heels in refusing to work or crying through it all but he kept on trying. Tony was a shining light. He could have given up each time there was a setback but he didn't. I am grateful to have been part of his journey. Sorry I can not be there for his service but we are out of state now. Will be thinking of him and sending good vibes.

“ Cathy, Leo, Andy & Family

I am so sorry for your loss. Tony was a sweetheart. He was so happy to get Flex. I met Cathy because I was friends with her Mother Agnes. I became good friends with Cathy after Agnes passed. Therefore when I was in town we would meet up for brunch and Tony would sometimes come along. He was a smart, kind and patient man. God will take care of him now, he's up there with Agnes now. “ Hugs and love to you Cathy, Leo, Andy and ALL those that were blessed to have known Tony. His life was an inspiration and had such a huge impact in so many ways. We were truly touched by his courage, his smile, and his awesome zest to make a difference in our world. Each day was a gift to be by his side and experience his presence. We will always cherish the times and celebrations we shared with Tony in his younger days of preschool at Sugar Hill United Methodist Church. I remember the play date at McDonald's. I remember when Tony came to Jacob's 5th birthday party and they played putt putt. We were blessed to witness Tony's love for God and his enthusiasm for life. We hope the pictures of these memories help bring you peace and comfort.

“ I had the honor of meeting Tony and Flex on March 6th of this year while celebrating Nathan Lippert! He shared his journey, his plans for school, his mission to support and encourage others and his faith in our Lord! I was moved by his courage! He made a huge impression on my heart! We are all better because of his example.

“ I first met Tony in 8th grade. We met through the football team. I was awful at football, and really any sport I came across. I was a scrawny, odd, emotional, and very shy person. As a result I was picked on a lot through middle school and for playing on the team. Tony was one of the only people who made me feel like it was ok for me to be there. Like I belonged in a time where I felt like an outcast. Like I wasn't a burden to the people around me. He made a genuine effort to get to know me, and just had a way of making you feel special. He was relentlessly positive, and he showered everyone he met with that love. He sat with me and a couple other buddies during lunch in 8th grade and had us all talking each others ears off, laughing, and cracking jokes. He kept me company on the benches on the sidelines during practices and games. I would describe to him what was going on in the games, and he cheered for us louder than anyone in the crowd, encouraging me to do the same. He brought me a little out of my bubble, and I will never forget the light he brought to my world. I'm certain he had that same impact on many more people than me. Rest easy my old friend. I'll do my best to try and honor you everyday and follow in your example. Thank you for everything.

“ I've never been a "kid person." I simply didn't notice people below a certain age/height. Because of Sidney, I became aware of Tony. Because of her, Cathy & Tony himself, I came to see, know & love him. To everyone he met, he was their hero, an amazing young man. The world is darker without him in it but Heaven is so much brighter.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Tony's passing; I pray you all feel the Lord's presence right now and know exactly where Tony is. I met Tony at church and he was a wonderful friend. He was someone that just brightened my day every time I got to see and talk to him. I'm so grateful I got to know him over the years. His kindness and love for the Lord will always be remembered and a part of my life, and I'm sure for many others!

“ I met Tony because his older brother used to babysit me and my siblings when we were kids. Then we got older and moved away, but Tony and I always kept in touch. He was a great person and an amazing friend.

I went to a few school dances with him, and that's one memory I will never forget. The dances were so fun, and Tony even won Prom King at one dance!

He will be so missed. Tony was one of a kind. A true friend that I will never forget.

“ Tony and I went through treatment together and have known each other since we were pretty little. This summer Tony joined me in attending the Heads Up Conference with the Children’s Brain Tumor Foundation in Montana. We were in the same cabin. Before we left for camp, I had told Tony that I’d be there to help him. From what I can tell Tony had the best time ever at camp and was looking forward to next year. Even with this year having been Tony’s first year, he made such an impression on people that everyone had great memories and great things to say. At the Heads up conference, we are a community that sticks together and Tony will forever be a part of it. Tony we’ve know each other a long time and I am so glad to have gotten to share the week at camp with you. You have made a mark on me and a lot of other people and will be forever remembered.

Thr first time I met Tony was at a summer camp in the preschool. I continued to see him at church throughout the years. Tony was always helping out in the Church kids Programs and even would come to my PE classes at the Academy and help with my students. I remember when Tony was making bracelets and he specifically asked My granddaughters, what kind of beads they wanted. He designed them the way they asked and they wore them for years! Such a generous kind heart. One of my favorite memories of Tony was when I was teaching him karate. He and Katie had so much enthusiasm and energy. Tony always worked hard, built up a sweat, and progressed every week. Heaven has gained an amazing angel, and I can't wait to see him again.

“ Leo, Cathy & Andy, I am saddened, yet rejoicing to hear of Tony's home going. Saddened because he leaves a huge void, not only in your lives but in the lives of so many others. Tony was such a fighter. He never gave up. He was like the Energizer Bunny- he just kept on going. You all poured into Tony's life & helped him through it all. I asked the Lord to give you each the peace that passes all understanding to help you through this time. Tony may have changed his address but he will always be remembered here. You all are in my thoughts & prayers. ❤️🙏❤️🙏❤️🙏

“ I am so very sorry to hear of the death of Tony. I was privileged to meet him at Camp Mak-A-Dream in June with his awesome service dog, Flex. We are so very lucky to have had Tony touch our lives. We met Tony and Cathy on the beach at Seaside with our therapy dog Jake. Jake was off duty at the beach but took to Tony immediately. It was mutual. Tony felt the love from Jake. Tony was at seaside for camp, and Jake wanted to spend time with Tony. We even went to Tony's closing recital. Jake has now passed but he touched so many lives just as Tony did. We prayed for Tony and told his story every year at the beach. We are so proud of his career. We're so glad he got Flex. We are honored to have known Tony and will continue to tell his story.

“ To summarize a life like Tony's seems impossible, to summarize his impact is unfathomable. With every hurdle, he seemed to find a way to glide right over (or bulldoze through, at times) anything that stood in his way. He always made sure to let people know that even when tomorrow is uncertain, right now is promised.

Just take it day by day and live your life.

I love you so much, little brother. Growing up, you gave me purpose in ways I'm not sure I ever spoke to you about. I am so grateful for the time we got to spend with you. You taught all of us so much about the meaning of LIFE without fear; to have hope in the presence of uncertainty.

It is impossible to think that I have to listen to your silly laugh through videos and see your cheeky grin through photos from now on. But, I am so thankful that I can. You are so missed, and I am forever better because you existed in this life.

Put in a good word for us up there.
