“ Hi to the Fredette Family. I saw Fred's Obit on the computer and felt love and sorrow for you all. I don't know if you remember me. I was your landlord way back in Roselle Park NJ. When I go through my old memory pictures I think of you all. Fred, Michi, Mary, and Cathy. George and I are still living in Roselle Park. We are both 89 years old now. George is not well but I'm OK. we send our deepest condolences to our old friends.

“ Dear Fredettes,

I am saddened to hear about the death of A.R. I remember many happy evenings hanging out at your home, watching t.v. with him and how satisfying it was to get him to laugh. Why is that? Perhaps he was so quiet in his chair and then something or someone would amuse him. He was an interesting human being. He told a joke about Sid Sackowitz and the pope and I didn't get it (because I wasn't Catholic?) Everyone else in the room laughed and he explained it to me.

He also was very informed about historic events and the church. Now that I read his obituary, I see he did a lot of good in the world.

Those are some of my happiest high school memories: hanging out at your home, Mary. Both of your folks were wonderful.

“ I want to express my sincere condolences on the loss of your husband and father. I know what it feels like to lose someone very close to you in death having lost both of my parents. It is an unbearable pain at times. One of the reasons that I am writing to you is to share some scriptures that brought me comfort during my loss and I hope that they will bring your family comfort as well. One of them is found in Isaiah 41:10 which says to us not to be afraid, for I am with you. Do not be anxious for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes I will help you. I will hold on to you with my right hand of righteousness. Another scripture that brought me closer to God and provided me with hope is found in Psalms 34:18. Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit. Although we have lost someone very close to us, we have the hope that we might see them again. The bible's promise at John 5:28,29 says to us that we should not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. Those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgement. The bible's promises never fail, so we can have comfort from the scriptures. Please know that I am keeping your family in my prayers.
Thank you,
