

Arthur P. Burgess

March 17, 2020

Arthur P. Burgess (October 13, 1938-March 17, 2020)

Art Burgess, 81, passed away peacefully on March 17, 2020. While he dealt with various health issues for some time, he always retained his extraordinary optimistic attitude toward life. Art was born in Queens, NY and grew up in Chicago, IL. During his high school years, he moved to Virginia. After high school, he attended the College of William & Mary, earning a degree in business. Upon graduation, he served in the US Army for three years, including an assignment in Germany. Art later earned an MBA from Georgia State University.

Art had many interests. He was a voracious reader, enjoying science fiction, detective, mystery, and spy novels. Additionally, he loved to act. He participated in many plays both in high school and college. Later in life, he acted in many local plays, commercials, and music videos. Finally, he loved to play card games, especially Bridge. He was a member of the American Contract Bridge League, earning the title of Life Master.

He is survived by his son and spouse, Bob and Mandi Burgess; grandson and spouse, Michael and Karli Burgess; granddaughter, Molly Burgess; older brother and spouse Alan and Joanne Burgess; and twin brother, Albert Burgess; and six nephews.

Art will be interred at a later date at the Georgia National Cemetery in Canton, Georgia.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that you honor Art's memory with a donation to the American Diabetes Association.

Tribute Wall

“ Arthur P. Burgess

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM

“ We will really miss Uncle Arthur. It was always fun to see him over the holidays. I'm certain he's now at peace. Many blessings to all.

Eric Burgess - April 01, 2020 at 12:00 AM

“ My most sincere condolences to you, Bob and Mandy Burgess, for the loss of your Father! I know how many people his life touched and mine was one of those. I will always have very fond memories of my Uncle Arthur and will miss him!

Wray W. Burgess - March 31, 2020 at 12:00 AM