“ Sending my sincere condolences for the loss of your beloved son, Austin. I know your heart is broke and there is a comforting scripture found at Isaiah 41:10, 13, and I would like to share it with you. It says, God will take you by the right hand saying, do not be afraid, for I am with you. Knowing the deep love our Heavenly Father, Jehovah God has for us, we are assured he will help you through this difficult time.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I had the pleasure of teaching Austin at Duluth High School. He had a spirit that shined brighter than the stars and a personality bigger than any mountain. May the memories and love fill your hearts and ease your mind during this tough time.

“ Angie, I am so sorry for your loss. Austin was such a sweet boy. I enjoyed so much cutting up with him when I came into the Rexall to eat. Always a smile. He will be missed. Now my son, who is already there, will show him the ropes in heaven now that Austin has his wings. God will help you as he has helped me, one day at a time.
