“ This is all too surreal... I didn't know Bailey for a long period of time but I can assure you him and Chloe both have touched my heart in ways people I've known my whole life haven't. I am so thankful that I got to meet Bailey and spend some time with him. He was the funniest and sweetest guy. Him and Chloe together listened to me and never judged me. Bailey gave me his very best advice and told me what was best for me. I can't hardly type this without asking if this is even real... my heart hurts so bad ... I was so lucky to have met him, Chloe, hunter and his mom and many more of his friends and family. I pray and will continue to pray everyday for the family friends and Chloe..

“ Stephanie, Hunter, O'Shields and Stowe families:
As your neighbors since 2003, we observed all the excitement of growing up activities and had many smiles and laughs as we looked up from our endless work to be taken back to our long ago childhood antics. Years flew by, and there I stood one day with two handsome, articulate young men who swept me away with their enthusiasm for college classes, work, music, and faith. I cherish the time they took to tell me about beloved grandparents and family history and shared the stories with brother Roger and with friend Bob, who remembered Grandpa Stowe. We three were together on Meadowbrook when a call came with the tragic news that crushed our spirits to this day. Stephanie and Hunter...no words...just wings and prayers for your strength to cope, endure, and fashion your personal memorials in your hearts that will light your paths for the rest of your days and become the rock for the hard carved new normal. We, as all who know you, sorrow with you. Hunter, don't forget that you promised me a song, and I will be holding you to that promise...some sweet day. Be O'Shields and Stowe STRONG.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Bailey and Hunter for the better part of a year. I grew to love both of these fine men and my heart is broken to have Bailey gone so soon. Bailey had a great sense of humor and a good work ethic, and he was always a joy to be around. He had a wonderful sense of adventure.

“ I was only able to visit with Bailey a few times and I don't know him as well as I would have liked to. Even though the time I did spend with him on a few occasions was brief, I realized over the last few days how much he really meant to me and how lucky we all were to have him in our lives. I knew when my son, Josh Palmer, and Bailey met each other, it was during a difficult time in their young lives. I didn't know how to help my son or what I could do to make sure he continued to grow into the man God wanted him to be and still feel loved and not alone. Sometimes kids these days are faced with growing up a lot faster than they should have to and that was true for both of them. Little did I know that God had a plan. He made sure they had each other and he already knew how great the outcome from this friendship would be. Bailey was a gift to our family and I began to see how they were good for each other and their friendship kept them both from giving up. There was a great friendship which grew to be more like brothers. Having Bailey as a friend helped Josh become the wonderful man we all love so much and I couldn't be more proud of both of them. I see something in My son Josh that I truly admire but I know I can't take all the credit. In the time he spent with Bailey he became a man with courage, confidence and self worth. He showed determination to make something of himself and over the years was proud to be able to share becoming a young dad with Bailey. When I would look at both of them, I see an example of what every young man in this world should strive to be. It wasn't until Josh heard the news about Bailey that I really saw how much he meant to my son because it was the first time I had seen him cry since he was a little boy and unless you know the circumstances surrounding how their friendship began and what brought them to where they actually met, you will never understand what it says about the kind of person Bailey was and how he had a way of lighting up any room. I thank God that he placed these boys in each others lives so they never felt alone. I thank God for placing Bailey in my sons life. I know what a blessing he truly was. I know my son will carry him in his heart forever and when I look at him I will always see a glimpse of Bailey. I will smile when I think back to all the good times they both were able to have sharing first moments in their life like their matching tattoos and more important ones like making the decision of getting baptised the same day at church. If you seen Josh, you seen Bailey. It gave me comfort and peace to know Josh never had to be or felt alone and I will never forget Bailey and what he meant to me and how he were always a true friend to my son. I know my son has memories he will carry with him always and I could never find the words to say what Bailey meant to us all and please know he will always be a part of our family and his name will echo in our homes forever because when God blesses Josh with a son, he has decided he will have the perfect name and his name will be Bailey and I cant think of a better way to honor the memory of his friend and every time I hear Josh say that name, I will smile and think about him and what a blessing he was to our family. We will see you again Bailey in heaven and until then please keep a watch over my Josh just as you always have! We love you and keep smiling sweetheart! I am praying for you Stephanie and everyone in the Oshields family. May God Bless each of you and be with y'all in this time of losing Bailey. I hope you can find some comfort in me sharing what he meant to us and especially my Josh and how he was such a blessing to anybody he came in contact with and how he touched our lives in a way that We will never forget. Thank you for allowing me this opportunity to share all of this with you in your time of mourning. We were truly blessed to have him In our lives. Josh was so lucky to have been able to call him his friend. We will always be here for each of you. Love always.
