“ To My Loving Cousin, Barbara, When we lose someone we love It seems that time stands still. What is moving through me is a quiet sadness. My heart aches in sadness and secret tears still flow. Your life gave us memories to beautiful to forget. I think of all the good times we shared. I thank our heavenly Father for every memory of love and joy and every sorrow we shared. A cherished place within my heart is where you will always stay. Heavenly Father, I commend Barbara's spirit to you, sustain her soul and enfold her in your loving arms. Now Barbara, between just the two of us as we did as teenagers as we shared our deepest secrets, let's join our pinkie fingers together and know this is not the end but the beginning of your life with Christ. Love ya, Gloria
