

Barbara Ann McManus

March 8, 1945 - July 27, 2022

Barbara Ann McManus, native to Ft. Worth, Tx, died at NEGMC Hospice Unit, after a chronic illness. Barbara passed in the loving arms of her daughter. She was 77 years old.

She is survived by her daughter, Shanna Egenbacher Rosales and her granddaughter, Mikaela Rosales. Also by her second nephew, Butch Marr and best friend, Ruby Rhodes.

She was a loving and devoted Mother and Nana. She loved to dance, everything Elvis, read, garden, Texas Ranger games, decorate for every holiday, watch mysteries on PBS. Her pets were very precious to her and she passed her empathy for animals along to her daughter and granddaughter. Many animals were Fostered as a family project.

Barbara, Mommy, Nana will be deeply missed and remembered with great love. Memorial Service will be held at home where we will rejoice, as she is with her Lord and Savior.

Tribute Wall

“ Barbara Ann McManus

---

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM

“ The whole family was at lake Worth Casino Beach in Ft. Worth, Texas. I was about 6 yrs old. Going down for the 3rd time. Barbara saved me. Butch Marr. Butchie Boy to Barbara.

---

Butch marr - August 02, 2022 at 07:56 PM

“ I treasure almost 65 years of memories with Barbara, my lifelong, dearest friend. What a joyful blessing to have had you in my life. You get to spend eternity with Our Lord and Savior.

---

Ruby Rhodes - August 02, 2022 at 05:52 PM